Bergamo Beige

METZ®

METZ BERGAMO is a unique interpretation of the Ceppo stones from the northern part of Italy. The stone material created in nature often looks like a weathered rough concrete with a tremendous variety of stones in a mix of colours shapes and sizes. Honing and filing of the stone then provides a visual feast by enhancing the variety and look of the aggregates. Modern digital production techniques enable Metz Bergamo to present this unique material with all the performance benefits of a high quality Italian porcelain tile.
